Malaquias Baca, of DeHaven, was a visitor in this city this week.

It is hard for some democrats to believe that Larrazolo was defeated.

Levinus DeSmet of Springer, passed through Roy Thursday on his way to Albert.

Among the large number of pensions granted or increased lately through the efforts of Delegate Andrews are two Mora county people. Mrs. Albina Martinez de Martinez, of Cleveland, has been granted a pension of $8.00 per month from July 24, 1906. Wm. A. Vance has been granted an increase to $10.00 a month, to take effect October 3, 1906.

Details of plans for the changing of the division of the E. P. & S. W. from Alamogordo to Carrizozo were completed Sunday, and a large number of men are now at work laying tracks etc. Carrizozo has suddenly grown into a very busy town, and there are not accommodations for one-half of the people who will make the town their future home.

OREGON MAN BUYS PARK RANCH.

Word from Las Vegas informs us that Judson P. Van Houten, of Portland, Oregon, has closed a deal there for the purchase of the Glen Mora ranch, known as the Park ranch in this county, consisting of 21,432 acres. In addition, Von Houten also purchased the Hugh Woods and Brady ranches and made lease of 40,000 acres in Cherry valley of E. B. Wheeler of the Butler estate. This gives him about 100,000 acres in the Cherry valley. Mr. Van Houten will convert his vast holdings into a cattle ranch.

GUNS AND GUN PLAY.

It is a deplorable fact that many men in our city and vicinity have formed the pernicious habit of carrying weapons on their persons while around town. It is high time that these violators of the law, no matter who or what they are should be made examples of, and if every person carrying a gun unlawfully were given the limit of punishment for each offense this habit would soon be stopped. Every good citizen should work for this end by helping the authorities in giving information and prosecuting every case of gun carrying contrary to the law.

CATTLE THIEF GIVEN HEARING.

Matias Padilla de Sena who was arrested near Folsom by Deputy Sheriff Wm. Boylan, of Las Vegas last month on the charge of having stolen a horse and saddle, and in whose possession a bunch of cattle belonging to Colfax County stockman was found, had a hearing in Springer last week on the charge of having stolen the cattle. Padilla's brother, whom he said had stolen the cattle, had also been arrested, but the charge was not born out by the evidence and he was discharged. Padilla was taken back to Las Vegas and after he has served his time for stealing the horse and saddle his case will be taken up by Colfax county authorities.

Rafael Gomez, a member of the New Mexican Mounted Police, was in the city and vicinity this week on business. Mr. Gomez is the man who a short time ago recaptured the notorious outlaw Jose Baca who escaped from the penitentiary 5 years ago. Baca had been living on a ranch in the Zuni mountains. Gomez learned of his whereabouts and drove out to the place, and on the way out saw Baca ahead of him in a wagon. Gomez, knowing the desperate character of his man, took no chances but telling his driver to catch up to the wagon ahead, hid under blankets in the wagon. When they were up to and opposite Baca's wagon he jumped up and covered Baca with his gun. Baca surrendered at once and was taken to Santa Fe, to serve another 5 years in the penitentiary.

TERRITORY VS. FLORES.

The case of the Territory vs. Flores was called before Justice of the Peace Seledon Olivas on Saturday afternoon at one o'clock. Flores was charged with having resisted and assaulted an officer of the law on election day. Flores plead not guilty.

The territory represented by A. S. Bushkevitz, presented as witnesses, M. Trobaugh, Pacheco, Alfredo McGrath, Irwin Floersheim. After the completion of the testimony for the Territory, defendant's attorney waived examination of witnesses of defendant. The justice decided in favor of the territory and fixed the defendant's bond at $800, which was furnished. In another case on the same offense against Flores, defendant waived examination and his bond fixed at $800 which was furnished.

ASSAULT WITH INTENT TO KILL.

Leandro Archuleta was arrested Tues. morning by Mounted Policeman Rafael Gomez on the charge of assaulting Special Officer Trobaugh with intent to kill on election day. After leaving the scene of the fight near the polls on that day Trobaugh, who was badly beaten up, had gone to Floersheim Mercantile Co.'s store and while standing near a counter, Archuleta had entered, pulled a gun, pointed it at Trobaugh and threatened to kill him there or to go with him outside and be killed. Douglas Wright who was present, induced Archuleta to go away before he carried out his threat. Justice of the Peace Seledon Olivas examined the case at 10.30 Tuesday morning, and fixed his bond to appear before the grand jury, at $5,000, which was furnished.

Another case against Archuleta for carrying concealed weapons will be heard on the 26th.

A question which is now occupying the attention of citizens wishing to see New Mexico admitted into the Union is whether or not, in spite of the fact that the joint statehood proposition has been defeated, New Mexico should hold a constitutional convention. We believe it is the general opinion that it would be a good step toward gaining statehood for this convention to be held. A constitution such as we feel sure the delegates elected could frame would go a long ways when submitted to Congress in dispelling any doubts as to the ability of the people of New Mexico to govern themselves, and if through this medium the desired end could be gained the expense entailed in holding the convention would be well invested. And it is reasonable to suppose that with such evidence before it and also the fact that New Mexico voted to accept statehood by a 10,000 majority, that congress would consider New Mexico's claim in a favorable light. As far as the expense of holding such a convention is concerned, there is no doubt that if the delegates themselves are unable or unwilling to go to Santa Fe under their own expense, the amount necessary for that purpose would be easily raised by subscription.
